ABOUT WARREN COUNTY

Past and Present

Warren County came into existence in 1825 when an act of the New Jersey Legislature, passed on Nov. 20, 1824, took effect and separated the area from Sussex County. The county was named in honor of Dr. Joseph Warren who, although he had no known association with the area, earned a heroic reputation throughout the original 13 states for his devotion to the revolutionary cause, which led to his death in the battle of Bunker Hill. During the Revolutionary War, a large majority of the 13,000 colonists who lived in Sussex (and what is now Warren) supported the patriotic cause. Sussex was among three New Jersey counties commended by the Provincial Congress in 1775 for "spirited exertions" in raising minutemen for the fight for independence.

The county originally had the townships of Greenwich, Hardwick, Independence, Knowlton, Mansfield, Oxford and Pahaquarry, from which the present 22 municipalities were carved. The Town of Belvidere was chosen as the county seat, a decision that was considerably influenced by the action of General Garret D. Wall, who donated grounds for a county courthouse and public square in Belvidere.

SHIPPEN MANOR, home to the iron masters of Oxford Furnace, is open to the public as a county museum. It also houses the offices of the Warren County Cultural and Heritage Commission.*

Transportation has played an important role in the development of the county since its beginning. Its earliest residents were the Lenni Lenape, who lived along the rivers and streams of the region. The first Europeans to settle in the county were the Dutch, who came to Pahaquarry Township and dug for copper around 1650. During this period, they constructed a road from Pahaquarry to Kingston, N.Y., over which they transported the proceeds of their mining ventures. This road, the first commercial highway built in the United States, is still in existence today. Known as "Old Mine Road," it traverses the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area, a major visitor attraction in the county.

Although it was the first area of the county to be settled by European colonists, Pahaquarry Township is no more. Largely vacated by the federal government's disputed plan to build the Tocks Island Dam, much of Pahaquarry later became federal and state parkland. With only a handful of residents left, the Township merged with neighboring Hardwick Township on July 2, 1997, reducing the number of municipalities in New Jersey to 566. Accomplished through special legislation, the merger was the first one in the state in 45 years.

In the early 1830s, the Morris Canal opened in New Jersey, with its western terminus at Phillipsburg on the Delaware River in Warren County. Some 33 miles of the canal's 102-mile route to Jersey City were in Warren County, and the canal provided a thoroughfare for the county's farm products to reach metropolitan markets. Villages such as Port Warren, Port Colden, Port Murray and Rockport owe their names and their existence to their location along the canal. The Morris Canal also brought together the anthracite coal from Pennsylvania with the limestone and iron ore from New Jersey in the formation of heavy industry. Railroads quickly replaced the canal and sped the development of industry within the county.

Today, sections of the Morris Canal are being transformed into a public greenway across the county. Moreover, The Museum at Bread Lock Park (site of a lock on the canal) in Franklin Township and the Jim & Mary Lee Museum at a former canal inclined plane in Greenwich Township welcome visitors to learn more about the canal; two rail and transportation museums operate in Phillipsburg; and a steam train excursion departing from Phillipsburg runs on the scenic "Bel-Del" railroad tracks along the Delaware River.

Transportation continues to play an important role in the county's evolution. Interstate highways Route 78 and Route 80 cross the county, opening the area to many new residents who commute daily to their jobs in metropolitan New Jersey. Meanwhile, commercial and industrial areas are being created along the highway corridors, as Warren County's proximity to New York, Philadelphia and New Jersey's metropolitan area, along with the quality of life the county offers, make it an attractive place for homes and businesses.

THE WAYNE DUMONT, JR. ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, in White Township contains the office and meeting room of the Warren County Board of Chosen Freeholders, as well as other county departments. Opened in 1986, the building is named for State Senator Dumont (1914-1992) of Phillipsburg, who represented Warren County for 37 years.

General Information

The County of Warren occupies an area of 364.55 square miles, is 32 miles long and has an average width of 13 miles. It ranks ninth in area and 19th in population among New Jersey's 21 counties. Within the county is some of the most rugged and scenic terrain found in the state. The landscape is characterized by a series of ridges and valleys in a northeasterly / southwesterly direction. Elevations range from 125 feet to 1,600 feet above sea level. Mountain ranges and ridges that divide the county's fertile river valleys include Kittatinny Mountain, Jenny Jump Mountain, Scott's Mountain and Pohatcong Mountain. Streams and rivers, all emptying into the Delaware River, include the Musconetcong, Paulinskill and Pequest rivers; Dunnfield, Lopatcong and Pohatcong creeks; and Van Campens Brook. Fertile valleys have enabled the county to become an important agricultural district in the Garden State.

Governmental Structure

Warren County operates under the freeholder form of county government. The Board of Chosen Freeholders consists of three Freeholders each elected at large for staggered terms of three years. The Freeholder Director is chosen by the Freeholders at the board's annual reorganization meeting in January. The Freeholders supervise, direct and administer all county services and functions through the various departments, autonomous boards, agencies and commissions. Reporting to the Board of Chosen Freeholders is an appointed County Administrator. In addition to its fiscal administration and the responsibility of linking the county's municipalities with State and other local governmental units, the Board of Chosen Freeholders has these duties:

To fulfill the following legislative responsibilities: (1) formulating county policies; (2) developing new county programs; (3) appointing members of the various commissions and boards; and (4) appropriating funds required from the 22 municipalities of the county to maintain all county services.

And to provide for the following services: (1) general government; (2) regulations; (3) roads and bridges; (4) correctional and penal; (5) health and welfare; and (6) education.

The term "freeholder" originated in England, dating back to at least the 16th Century. Originally, a Freeholder was a person in the British Royal Court who was considered responsible in character or otherwise in favor with the King, and therefore a worthy recipient as an owner (holder) of land grants in the new American colony.

Many years later, on July 2, 1776, just two days before the Declaration of Independence was adopted in Philadelphia, the Provincial Congress of New Jersey met in Burlington and declared its separation from King George and the British parliament. The meeting provided that qualified voters were to elect various officers under the "hands" (approval) of six Freeholders. Legislation in 1798 set the composition of Freeholder Boards at one elected representative for each municipality, and in 1904 smaller boards were authorized. Warren is the only remaining county in New Jersey to have a three-member board, and voters reaffirmed keeping the board at that size in a 2007 referendum.

Quality of Life

Among Warren County's greatest natural assets are clean air, clean water and open spaces for resident families, for visitor recreation, and for commerce. Nearly 40,000 acres are prime forest, and more than 61,000 acres are termed forestland of statewide importance. Parks, forests and conservation lands within the County total more than 56,000 acres and include Jenny Jump State Forest, Stephens State Park, Allamuchy Mountain State Park, Worthington State Forest, Merrill Creek Environmental Resource Preserve, Pequest Trout Hatchery and Natural Resource Educational Center, and the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area. The county also has three sizable parcels purchased with open space preservation funds, the Marble Hill, White Lake and West Oxford Mountain Natural Resource Areas. Country roads for biking, hiking or driving offer many scenic vistas as well as country craft and antique shops for browsing, farms for picking fresh vegetables and fruits, and wineries that welcome visitors to taste their selections.

THE WARREN COUNTY HOME in Mansfield originally served as the county "poor farm." Only five years after Warren County was established, the Freeholder Board bought the property and erected this structure, making it the second county building project after the Courthouse in Belvidere. After being used as a youth shelter and then standing vacant for many years, the Warren County Home was completely refurbished and opened in December 2007 as the new home of the county Health Department.*

The Delaware River, with 52 miles of county shoreline, is a major recreation resource. Anglers can try for bass, muskies, shad and a variety of other fish, while outdoors enthusiasts can enjoy canoeing, swimming, tubing and boating. The Delaware's tributary streams and rivers, each having its own picturesque setting, are alive with sport fish and offer other recreational opportunities. Camping, bird watching and hunting are other outdoors activities that many county residents and visitors enjoy.

The Pequest Trout Hatchery and Natural Resource Education Center, operated by the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection's Division of Fish and Wildlife, was sited in the Pequest River Valley because of the ample supply of pure water. The hatchery uses up to 7,000 gallons of ground water a minute to raise more than 600,000 trout each year for stocking in New Jersey's publicly accessible waterways. Visitors are welcome at the hatchery for self-guided tours, and group programs are held by arrangement. Group programs may be scheduled. Visit www.njfishandwildlife.com/pequest.htm for hours of operation, directions, and a listing of public programs

In 1993, a non-binding public referendum was passed by Warren County voters to allow an additional tax of up to 2 cents per $100 of assessed valuation for the purpose of acquiring areas of scenic and environmental value throughout the county. The open space trust fund has been tapped to buy county and municipal parkland, protect historic features and permanently retire the development rights on prime farmland. In 1999 and again in 2002, county voters approved non-binding open space referendums by large margins to increase the open space tax. This year, the Freeholders set the open space tax at 4 cents to help keep Warren County green. A number of municipalities have approved their own dedicated open space taxes as well, demonstrating the strong sentiment among residents for protecting the natural and historic resources that make the county a beautiful and unique place.

All or part of 16 Warren County communities are listed on the National Register of Historic Places, plus 60 other county structures or sites are listed on the register. The Town of Belvidere, the county seat, is noted for its Victorian-style architecture, with more than 200 homes listed on the register. Meanwhile, the Village of Hope in Hope Township contains many of the buildings constructed during the Moravian settlement period between 1769 and 1808.

The county offers a wide variety of cultural events through the community groups and educational institutions. Each year, the Warren County Cultural and Heritage Commission organizes concerts and special events in Oxford Township that revolve around the Oxford Furnace and Shippen Manor, which were built in the mid-1700s. Shippen Manor, home to the ironmasters of Oxford Furnace, has been restored and is open as a county museum.

Meanwhile, every summer the area's agricultural heritage is on display with the Warren County Farmers' Fair in Harmony Township (July 25 - August 1). Music fills the air at festivals in Phillipsburg (July 17-19), Knowlton (July 17-19) and Washington (Sept. 26); Belvidere puts its heritage on display with Victorian Days (Sept. 12-13) and Millbrook Village recreates 19th Century life with Millbrook Days (Sept. 19-20). Year-round and county-wide, there is always something interesting to do in Warren.

Located in Warren County are community parks, pools, country inns, golf courses, campgrounds, hiking trails, riding stables and fine restaurants, plus quaint historic villages, country shopping, scenic splendor, a relaxing environment, outdoor recreation, and many family entertainment attractions.

Health Care

Warren County prides itself on having two hospitals, both of which are expanding in size and services. St. Luke's Hospital-Warren Campus in Phillipsburg is a full-service hospital with divisions in medicine, surgery, family practice, gynecology and radiology. Community services include education, physical therapy, poison control, alcohol and drug recovery and speech and hearing services. St. Luke's Warren is especially proud of its Center for Positive Aging, a full service department that includes senior assessment services, The Memory Clinic, support groups and The Comfort Zone, region's only medically based adult day care program.

The other full-service hospital is Hackettstown Regional Medical Center. In addition to inpatient and outpatient medical and surgical services, HRMC offers 24-hour emergency services; an accredited Sleep Disorders Center; a nationally recognized Respiratory Therapy department; a Wound Healing Center with hyperbaric oxygen therapy; the Joan Knechel Cancer Center for inpatient and outpatient infusion and radiation therapy; an accredited Diabetes Education Program; a Total Joint and Spine Center; a Bariatric Surgery program; a Childbirth Family Center equipped for water births; a Primary Stroke Center; a Counseling and Addiction Center; the Center for Healthy Living; Intensive Care and Cardiac Critical Care services; a Laboratory accredited by the College of American Pathologists; a Physical, Occupational and Speech Therapy Center; and Emergency Medical Transportation Services.

For long-term care, Warren County has several private nursing facilities.

Institutions of Learning

The county has seven secondary educational schools. Six are public - including a county operated vocational-technical high school - while the private school is Blair Academy in Blairstown. There are 38 public and five private Kindergartens, elementary and middle schools, with at least one located in every municipality except Hardwick Township.

Belvidere, Hackettstown and Phillipsburg have public high schools that receive students on a tuition basis from neighboring municipalities, while Phillipsburg also has an Alternative Secondary School. North Warren Regional High School, located in Blirstown, serves that township and three surrounding communities. Warren Hills Regional High School in Washington Township includes students from five communities.

Warren County Technical School was established in 1959 and offers a full array of technical and vocational training as well as basic educational courses. Located in Franklin Township, the school has an excellent job placement percentage for its graduates, and is highly regarded among employers.

There are two institutions of higher learning in the county, Warren County Community College and Centenary College. Founded in 1867, Centenary is a private, four-year college in Hackettstown that also offers 12 graduate programs. Founded in 1981 as a college commission, Warren County Community College opened its permanent campus along Route 57 in Washington Township in 1996 and opened an expansion in 2008. In 2011, the college opened a satellite location, the WCCC Phillipsburg Education Center at 445 Marshall St., Phillipsburg, which also features the Small Business Growth Center offering low-cost space and training for new businesses. The College offers a range of programs, including transfer degrees to four-year institutions, associate degrees and certificates in several career fields, on-line courses, and a variety of community services.

WARREN COUNTY TECHNICAL SCHOOL in December 2011 rededicated part of the 2003 expansion as the John B. LaPorta Theater for the Performing Arts, in memory of the long-time Board of Education member from Washington Township.*

MEMORIALS

THE WARREN COUNTY WAR MEMORIAL

On November 11, 1998, the Warren County War Memorial was dedicated and presented to the people of Warren County. Located next to the Warren County Courthouse in Belvidere, the Memorial consists of three panels of black granite inscribed the names of the 287 men and two women from Warren County who lost their lives or are listed as missing in action while on active duty in World War I, World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War. Another stone has been added with names of those killed in the recent Iraq conflict. The stones rest on a brick plaza equipped with granite benches, while above fly the United States flag and the POW-MIA flag. A time capsule holding various documents was placed there in 1999, and a voice repeater system was installed in 2000 so visitors can hear a recorded history of the monument and the names of those it memorializes.

THE PURPLE HEART MEMORIAL

Next to the War Memorial is the Purple Heart Memorial, which was dedicated on Nov. 5, 2000. This red granite marker - "red for the blood they shed" - is dedicated to all those who were wounded during our nation's wars and conflicts. This memorial also includes granite benches, a brick-paved walkway, special lighting and landscaping. The $20,000 project was funded through donations, and behind it the tall flagpole flies a large "garrison flag" donated by the Warren County War Memorial Corporation.

WARREN COUNTY EMERGENCY SERVICES & 9/11 MEMORIAL

On Sept. 11, 2012, Warren County dedicated a new monument near the county Public Safety building and Fire Academy in Washington Township. It includes a steel beam from the World Trade Center and two granite stones inscribed with the names of Warren County residents who lost their lives in the 9/11 attacks, and those of emergency service members who have died in the line of duty over the years.

VETERANS RECOGNITION PROGRAM

In 2003, the Board of Chosen Freeholders launched the Warren County Veterans Recognition Program. The first person to be honored was Julius Hausold, a 108-year-old World War I veteran from Harmony Township. Since then, the County has held annual ceremonies at the War Memorial to recognize its war veterans and present them with the Warren County Distinguished Military Service Medal. Other ceremonies have been held at nursing homes in the county, and veterans unable to attend the ceremony can have their medal mailed to them.

To date, some 2,035 veterans have been honored since the program's inception. Some of the veterans have been recognized posthumously, as surviving loved ones submitted applications for recognition on their behalf.

Applications for future recognition ceremonies are received throughout the year. To be eligible, a veteran must have served during one of the recognized wartime periods outlined in New Jersey statute, and in the case of some of the conflicts, must have served in the war zone. Also, the veteran must be either a current Warren County resident or a resident at the time of his or her death, or the veteran had to have been a Warren County resident at the time he or she entered military service.

All branches of the service - Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard, and Merchant Marines activated for military duty - are eligible for the award.

Applications are available for download on the Warren County website at www.co.warren.nj.us/veterans.html or by calling the Public Information Department at 800-554-8540 or 908-475-6580.

Julius Hausold receives the first Warren County Distinguished Military Service Award from Freeholder Richard D. Gardner and Veterans Recognition Committee member Leo Becker in 2004.
