DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

4-H youth development programs help young people from first grade through one year out of high school develop social and life skills. Educational curriculum is available in a wide variety of areas from Aerospace to Veterinary Science. Volunteer adults are trained to work directly with young people. Many programs are also offered to all youth regardless of their status in the 4-H Club program. These include school enrichment, summer camp and environmental programs. Provides information and education services to all people without regard to sex, race, national origin, or handicap.
